

Mercer Casa Torner i Güell
In the wine capital

The Mercer Casa Torner i Güell is a small four-star hotel in the historic centre of Vilafranca del Penedès in a Catalan Art Nouveau building dating from 1884. An architectural work of eclectic style in which Modernist aspects predominate.

It was one of the first houses built with exposed brick, ceramic on the façade and wrought iron on the balconies, three characteristics of local Modernist architecture.

Its smart refurbishment has brought out its original splendor while introducing a contemporary touch through the choice of materials, its natural light and interior design. It has 14 rooms and 3 suites, equipped with all the comforts for leisure and work.

A blend of tradition and the contemporary, the Mercer Hotel Casa Torner i Güell is right in the heart of Vilafranca del Penedès, a town with a bustling trading and cultural life and in particular a long-standing winemaking tradition. It is an attractive hub for activities very close to Barcelona, where there is always something to see and do, and where rest and relaxation are assured.

The 14 rooms and 3 suites at the Mercer Casa Torner i Güell are arranged in a magnificent late 19th century modernist building, where historical elements are combined with contemporary design to create unique environments.

Rooms are completely renovated, soundproofed and equipped. Elegant and functional, spacious and bright. With all the comforts for a pleasant stay. Welcome to the country of cava.

The Mercer Casa Torner i Güell has a pleasant glazed lounge, where the breakfast buffet service is offered, a cocktail bar, a quiet open interior patio, an adapted elevator and parking near the property.

The glazed lounge can be transformed into a meeting room for organizing professional meetings and corporate presentations. The hotel also offers the coffee-break service.
